free books

Educators have emphasized the fact that reading with a preschool child is the single most important activity to prepare a child for school. The Dolly Parton Imagination Library was created to guarantee access to books and to inspire parents to read to their children as much as possible.

Fremont Area United Way is sponsoring Imagination Library in this area so that every child (ages birth - 5th birthday) who is enrolled will receive an age and developmentally appropriate book each month at home. The books are free for each child and every child is included as long as they are a resident of Dodge or Washington County.

FREMONT FAMILY COALITION

assistance
donated funds)

Fremont Area United Way serves as the fiscal backbone for the Fremont Family Coalition. FFC serves as a community hub for information, resources, and partnerships across Dodge and Washington counties. FFC provides services that support individuals and families facing challenges such as financial hardship, housing instability, and access to basic needs.

FFC is a community-owned collaborative that engages all the community's voices -- nonprofit organizations, health care providers, educators, government, churches, businesses and, most importantly, families and youth. Through the collective impact model, a community prevention system continues to be built in order to prevent life challenges from becoming a crisis for those in our community.
